RE: Weller WTBR1000FTLCA Soldering Robot, 120V

Dear Valued Customer,

This letter serves as formal notification that Apex Tool Group, LLC (ATG) is discontinuing the production of the Subject product. The product contained in this notice will no longer be manufactured.

Due to this unexpected circumstance ATG no longer has the means to produce additional material and is changing the sales status to "Obsolete" effective immediately.

There is no substitute product in our offering currently.

ATG will continue to service and support all products currently in the field, and will also continue to sell tips, consumables, and parts. We anticipate that this support will last for three years.
