

28th November 2023

Dear our valuable customer,

Notification of status transition to discontinued product

Thank you for your continued support.

We are writing to announce the discontinuation of below products due to the difficulties of sustainable production and decrease in sales volume. Please refer to the following information for details.

1. Target Products

Target Part No.	Alternative Product
R2061L03-E2	R2061L01-E2

2. Notification Date

28th November 2023

3. Last Buy Date

30th April 2024

4. Last Ship Date

31st October 2024

5. Notes

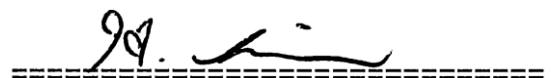

After this announcement, the target product will be in the status of "Discontinued".

This status is handled as follows.

- If there is an alternative product, please consider switching to the alternative product.
- Please place your order by the Last Buy Date. Orders past the Last Buy Date will not be accepted.
- In principle, we will complete the shipment by the Last Ship Date.

Thank you for your understanding and cooperation.

Respectfully Yours,
