

Part Change for Marktech Optoelectronics LEDs

Announced 03/01/2024

Effective Immediately

The following parts are affected by this announcement:

PCN Part Number	Change
MTE1300-WRC	Increased Power

DESCRIPTION OF CHANGE

Effective immediately – The LED chip in this 1300nm series has been changed to a higher power version of the chip. Please refer to all specifications for the new power

IMPACT OF CHANGE

Marktech Optoelectronics believes this change will be transparent to the majority of customers / end users as the electrical, mechanical and optical characteristics of the specification are virtually un-changed, however, it is the recommendation of Marktech engineering that all customers are informed of this change and new samples be provided for evaluation.
